I can't help thinking of you since you came in to view,
But I've tried,
All the boys do the same girl,
You drive them insane with desire,
Just like a bird in my head, it will all go as planned,
I'm a liar.
I can't help thinking of you since you can't in to view,
But I've tried.

I only came here coz' I hear that you're drinking
darling,
I only came here coz' I hear that you're drinking
darling.

Although I don't know your name,
Well, I could love you just the same for tonight,
And like a flash in your pannel I will take what I can if that's alright.
I still don't know how I feel,
The words I use are words I steal,
I'm a liar.
I can't help thinking of you since you came in to view,
But I've tried.

I only came here coz' I hear that you're drinking
darling,
I only came here coz' I hear that you're drinking
darling.

I only came here coz' I hear that you're drinking
darling,
I only came here coz' I hear that you're drinking
darling.

I only came here coz' I hear that you're drinking
darling,
I only came here coz' I hear that you're drinking
darling.
