Sometime's its hard, you don't wanna look over your shoulder.

Cuz you don't want to remember we you've been.

They'll come a time you'll die, if you could only hold her.

Cuz I know, that's where, I am.

~CHORUS~

So listen with all your heart.

Hold it inside forever.

You may find all your dreams have already come true.

Look inside and find the part that's leading you,

Cuz that's the beat of a heart.

Sometimes your drowning out with all your rage and thunder.

Sometimes your drowning out with all your tears.

They'll come a time when you'll hear it and you'll wonder,

Where in, the world have I been.

~CHORUS~

No one, can tell you how to get there.

It's a road you take, all by yourself

All by yourself (All by yourself)

~CHORUS~

oh, it's the sweetest sound,

cuz that's the beat of a heart.
