"Dancing Bear"

I bought you a dancing bear
The day you said you didn't care
Now you've gone away from me, love.

I thought it was really something swell
You said it was something a kid would take to Show and Tell
Now you've gone away from me, love.

It twisted around on its assistant ground
You just stared.

"Where's my ring? I don't want this pathetic thing," is all you said.

It twisted around on its assistant ground
You just stared.

"Where's my ring? I hate [I want] this pathetic thing," is all you said.
