Anita come closer, stop crying and listen to me
I guess its too late now but somehow I must make you see
What we thought wes our world was only a dream world and we just can't go on like this Anita your dreaming of a world that can never exist

Anita it's over there's nothing that's left now to say
Anita your dreaming and I know it's better this way

Anita come closer and close your pretty blue eyes Your young dreams just can't be and somehow you must realize That each time your with me my conscious reminds me of someone who's waiting alone Anita your dreaming and when you awake I'll be gone

Anita it's over there's nothing that's left now to say
