You bring me happiness then leave me loneliness
My world is in distress, yet I keep falling for you
You look into my eyes and tell the sweetest lies You're a heartbreak in disguise, yet I keep falling for you

Oh darling, when you're near, my world is happy, dear
But when you disappear, I don't know what to do
I love in misery, you're so unfair to me
It's such a mystery, why I keep falling for you

Oh darling, when you're near, my world is happy, dear
But when you disappear, I don't know what to do
I love in misery, you're so unfair to me
It's such a mystery, why I keep falling for you
