If you're lookin' for someone who's got it all to give
If you lookin' for someone who won't care how you live
If you're lookin' for someone who's only lovin' you
I ain't the one I ain't the one.

If you're lookin' for someone to dry your tears when you cry
If you're lookin' for someone to turn his back each time you lie
If you're lookin' for someone to walk on then walk by
But I ain't the one I ain't the one.

I ain't the one to let you do what you want to
I ain' the one who sits still and let you be untrue
I ain' t the one who'll go on lovin' you no matter what you do
I ain't the one I ain't the one.

Just keep lookin' further down the road
You might find yourself someone who likes walkin' alone
Someone you'll play with and leave dead by the road
I ain't the one I ain't the one.

I ain't the one I ain't the one.
I ain't the one I ain't the one...
