(Jessi Colter - Basil McDavid)

Jessi

There'll be joy, there'll be tears, there'll be laughter in
your journey
Don't let the tears overflow
You'll be up so high the fall will seem unbearable
You have the strenght on your side.

I saw a star, I knew last night he asked about you
The sky told the sun, run and find you
You feel like a champion, rise and fall then rise up again
I believe you can, I believe you can.

There'll be joy, there'll be tears, there'll be laughter in
your journey
Don't let the tears overflow
You'll be up so high the fall will seem unbearable
You have the strenght on your side.

I believe you can, I believe you can...
