(Waylon Jennings)

We got a lot of politicians up there on Capitol Hill
Ain't it funny how they prosper while the country stands still
Maybe I should run for office but I just like to talk
I ain't about to run for nothing I don't even like to walk.

Oh, that's just a lot of talkin'
Some is big some is small
Just runnin' my head
I'm just talkin', that's all.

Modern day matrimony is a pre-some kind of deal
You need a preacher and a lawyer just to tell you how you feel
Now I believe in love and marriage I guess you need a license too
But all that really gives you is the legal right to Sue.

Oh, that's just a lot of talkin'
Some is big some is small
Just runnin' my head
I'm just talkin', that's all.

And then there's you and me babe ain't we some kinda sight
We won't go down in history and then again we might
But that don't really matter just as long as we both know
We'll still be together at the close of the show.

Aw, that's just a lot of talkin' it don't make a lot of sense
I ain't out to hurt nobody it's at my own expense
Yeah it's just a lot of talkin' some is big some is small Just runnin' my head I'm just talkin' that's all.

Just talkin' that's all...
