Verse 1:

D

We got a lot of politicians

Up there on Capitol Hill

Ain't it funny how they prosper

While the country stands still

Maybe i should run for office

But i just like to talk

I ain't about to run for nothing

I don't even like to walk

Chorus:

G

Aw that's just a lot of talkin'

Some is big some is small

Just runnin' my head

D

I'm just talkin' that's all

Verse 2:

D

Modern day matrimony

Is a pre-some kind of deal

You need a preacher and a lawyer

Just to tell you how you feel

Now i believe in love and marriage

I guess you need a license,too

But all that really gives you

D

Is the legal right to Sue

Chorus.

Verse 3:(a tone higher)

E

And then there's you and me,babe

Ain't we some kinda sight

We won't go down in history

B

And then again we might

But that don't really matter

Just as long as we both know

We'll still be together

At the close of the show

Chorus bis:(a tone higher)

Aw that's just a lot of talkin'

E

It don't make a lot of sense

I ain't out to hurt nobody

It's at my own expense

Yea,it's just a lot of talkin'

E

Some is big,some is small

Just runnin' my head

E

I'm just talkin' that's all

Just talkin' that's all
