Omaha, oh you've been weighin' heavy on my mind Guess, I never really left it all I'm turnin' all those roads, I walked around the other way
Coming back to you Omaha

Omaha, Nebraska was that good enough for me
I always thought I was the roamin' kind With the pockets full of dreams in my worn shirt on my back
I left there looking for some things to find

Rode my thumb to San Francisco, I worked down by the bank
Got some schoolin' faithful by the law
The hardest thing I learned there was there ain't no easy way
To get ahead behind those county walls

So it's so long California reckon, I'll be a movin' on I'm leavin' even if I had to crawl I've got some losin's laying round
That I left them burn, waitin' there for me in Omaha

Omaha, you've been weighin' heavy on my mind I guess I never really left it all
way
I'm coming back to you Omaha
