This place is too damn lonesome
I think I'll change and go out for a while
On second thoughts where could I go
With a closet full of clothes that's out of style

It's another night of TV
Or another night of nothing on my hands
I gotta change my way of living
'Cause I'm still thinking like a married man

Suddenly single
It's hard to break old habits good or bad
If I wasn't over thirty
I'd might just move back in with mom and dad

I should call on some old flame
Oh, that ain't as easy as it sounds
My body says I need someone
But my heart ain't ready for someone right now

Maybe in the morning
I'll wake up and see the light
Small consolation, Lord
For the way I feel tonight

Suddenly single
It's hard to break old habits good or bad
If I wasn't over thirty
I'd might just move back in with mom and dad

Suddenly single
Someone's always right and someone's wrong
Anyway you look at it
I'm suddenly alone
