(Willie Nelson)

Why do I have to choose
To see everybody lose
To walk around and sing the blues
Well darling, I refuse.

Love is hard to find
Love of any kind
And a love like yours and mine
Creates it's own design.

So why do I have to choose
To see everybody lose
To walk around and sing the blues
Well darling, I refuse.

--- Instrumental ---

And when I think of her
And then I think of you
The love is not the same
But either love is true.

Why do I have to choose
To see everybody lose
To walk around and sing the blues
Well darling, I refuse.

--- Instrumental to fade ---
