

Waylon Jennings "Write Your Own Songs"

Visit "Write Your Own Songs" on MotoLyrics.com

You call us heathens with zero, respect for the law We are only songwriters, just writing our songs and that's all
We write what we live and we live what we write is that wrong

If you think it is Mr. Music Executive Why don't you write your own songs?

And don't listen to mine, they might run you crazy
They might make you dwell on your feelings a moment too long
We're making you rich and you're already lazy
So just lay on your ass and get richer or write your own songs

Mr. Purified Country, don't you know what the whole things about?
Is your head up your ass so far that you can't pull it out?
The world's getting smaller and everyone in it belongs

And if you can't see that Mr. Purified Country Why don't you just write your own songs?

And don't listen to mine, they might run you crazy
They might make you dwell on your feelings a moment
too long
We're making you rich and you're already lazy
So just lay on your ass and get richer or write your own
songs
So just lay on your ass and get richer or write your own
songs

And kiss ours

Visit Waylon Jennings page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.