I've been telling you there's someone else Virginia
You're not listening and this time, I think you should
But you've never cared for me, have you Virginia?
So you just can't see how anybody could

Yes Virginia, there is another woman
And she loves me like I used to wish you'd do
Yes Virginia, there is another woman
Now I need her more than I ever needed you

I have never measured up to what you've wanted
I'm through trying now, I know I never can
That's the reason why I love her so Virginia
She accepts me just exactly like I am

Yes Virginia, there is another woman
And she loves me like I used to wish you'd do
Yes Virginia, there is another woman
Now I need her more than I ever needed you
