Look what you've done you hopeless dreamer Your poor little feet just take you where you've been before
Run like the wind to get your own back Look what you've done you've made me throw up on your floor

We've lost our time no time
To tell you what I wanted to say
So sad, to bad, my dreamer

Look what you've done the hopeless the dreamers Shot to the head there's nothing anyone can say
Look in my eyes and beg forgiveness Look what you've done you've ruined everything we've made

We've lost our time, more time
To tell you, what I wanted to say
So sad, to bad, my dreamer

We've lost our time, no time,
To tell you what I wanted to say
You were, you were
My saviour, for a little while.
