Most of this is filler
Use it anywhere you please
I'm not going to fight it out
All the decoration that is getting such attention
Lacks a little gravity to me
But no offense

Call me if you need me
I would hate to think I let you down
And you can find me even when there's no
One else around
Temporary is what it is
But I've got different blood

When you hear a whip do you
Focus from the fear of a little pain
Always worked and never fed
Scars can always tell the story
But it just ends up in vain
If you get scarred again the same way
Call me...
I don't know when this was new
Only new to me
