How deep is your love?
Yeah, tell me how deep is your love?
And how you've been making the seed.
How deep is your love?

Oh, mine was strong but now it has glown
Playing, hunted in the streets
With a heart full of sketches
And daggers all in my dreams
Singing, la la la!

How deep is your love?
Yeah, tell me how deep is your love?

Oh, mine was cheap and made of plastic
Full of holes to stick fingers
And when the body lost that attraction
They sold out, were all that we had

And the girls don't look so pretty
Oh, turned his eye, stung by the city
I'll be standing up on the corner
Singing, la la la!

How deep is your love?
Yeah, tell me how deep is your love?
And how you've been making the seed.
But how deep is your love?
