Broke my heart, what a shame
Played the field, but all game
Your hands lingered for too long teasing touch, was very strong

That night you left with her in tow
contributing to my feminist woes

Feminist woe, feminist woe
For feminist cunts, feminist cunts, feminist cunts
oh oh oh

Played away, but all game
That night you left with her in tow
Contributing to my feminist woes

Feminist woe, feminist woe
For feminist cunts, feminist cunts, feminist cunts
oh oh oh

That night I knew that you had been untrue,
So what? What? What can I do?

Broke my heart, what a shame
Played the field, but all game

He broke her heart!
