They say that we'll get married but I'd quite like to run away
Everybody thinks you're perfect but I don't care what people say
I don't want to get a mortgage or think of when I'm 63
Or in terms of dogs and babies
I know how much you love me
But I don't think I love you
Anymore

But I don't think you understand
And naturally I'm a little wilder
And I don't need to hold your hand
I don't want to get a mortgage
or think of when I'm 63
Or in terms of dogs and babies
and know how much you love me
But I don't think I love you
Anymore

I've come to the conclusion that There's far too many girls and boy to meet
Someone else can see you're hurt
I'm really not that sweet
I don't want to get a mortgage
or think of when I'm 63
Or in terms of dogs and babies
and know how much you love me
But I don't think that I love you (she don't think that she loves him)
And I don't think that I need you (she don't think that she needs him)
Anymore
