You used to tell me
that you love me everyday.
I didn't know what to say.
But there was never any doubt, I always knew that to me you stay true.

But my heart never could be so committed
So all my strange passions you permitted

Why did you stay?
Why did you stay?
Why did you stay,
when I treated you that way?

I was so cruel
But he was so kind.
Why did I feel I had to leave you behind.
But he was so sweet.

Oh yeah, well I've had just about enough of sweet.

Why did you stay?
Why did you stay?
Why did you stay,
when I treated you that way?

Why did you stay? (6x)

with me...
