Verse 1

A painful felling in the gut,

Like putting salt into a cut,

There's more to life than a suicide knife,

A vicious circle of givin' up,

There's no way that you can live,

Without learning to forgive,

Putting past problems aside,

And a memory that died

Bridge Without ever knowing that you tried x2

Chorus

3 Needles in a vein, and a heart thats gone insane

And a conscience full of nothing and a past that full of pain

A constant fear of life and the madness in the eyes

And a memory which has frozen but a thousand lies

Verse2

A gun shot to the head or an overdose instead

Are all ways of givin' up, never knowing that your dead

Putting past problems aside of a memory that died

Facing fury with a purpose but a face that never lied

Bridge

Chorus

Interlude

I fell apart like a thousand different parts, Which have died

Fell into pieces of a thousand broken hearts, ran away and hide

No home to go at the end of the day, never thought it would come to this,

Well this fked up life I'm leading I gave it my ass to kiss

Bridge

Chorus
