(Pirates)
(Ishani)
(Naila Boss)
(Shola Ama)

Last week when you were cruisin'
Your best friend moved on me once again
I didn't wanna tell you
So I just kept it to myself

You should really know
I ain't playin you
Babe you gotta know
'Cause your love is all I'm living for
And if you look into my eyes then you will know
Oh baby, you should really know

I'm mad you'd think I'd hurt you
'Cause your love means everything to me
And I ain't keeping secrets (no, no)
I'm just keeping to myself

You should really know
I ain't playin you
Babe you gotta know
'Cause your love is all I'm living for
And if you look into my eyes then you will know
Oh baby you should really know

Do you think I want you to leave
When you mean so much to me
But if you don't want to stay
Then just let go of me
We'd be better off that way
If you don't trust me
And believe what people say
You're the only one I need

Boy, you know that I got ya
Anything that you do, boy, you know I support ya
How could you think I would do this to you

I thought wifey would mean more to you
I ain't tryin to say I weren't there that day
I'm just tryin to state it didn't happen that way
Naila Boss the name is true
The game is true
You know I belong to you
Come on, if you trying to give ultimatums
Then this right here is the point that i'm making
Do your thing, i'll be alright
Ala za hot grade i'ma be alright
Trust, if the love that we shared was so wrong
Shame cos i felt it was so strong
It's ok make your moves cos i know u'll be back in a week or two

You should really know
I ain't playin you
Babe you gotta know
'Cause your love is all I'm living for
And if you look into my eyes then you will know
Oh baby you should really know
