Honey, listen
There's something we've been missing
But I'm worried that this just might cross the line
See we're laughing, you touch me
And I feel it go right through me
This chemistry's driving me out my mind, listen baby

I, I'm just so attracted baby
And there's always a maybe between you and I
Tonight, girl let's go, let's see what happens
Cause I'm tired of imagining,
What loving you feels like

Oh, whatever you need, baby I can be
And I got no strings to complicate things
Darling can't you see
Both of us our grown, Got needs of our own
Baby, lets be F.W.B.

Lets be lovers, friends, and confidants
Coz you're all the woman I could want
Don't nobody need to know
We're Friends With Benefits

Listen, momma, we both don't want no drama
You can still do your thing, and I'll do mine
When it hits you, that feeling
And you need some sexual healing
You just call me girl and I'll be right on time

Cause I, I'm just so attracted baby,
And there's always a maybe, between you and I
Tonight, girl let's go, let's see what happens
Cause I'm tired of imagining

What loving you feels like

Oh, whatever you need, baby I can be
And I got no strings to complicate things
Darling can't you see
Both of us our grown, Got needs of our own

Baby, lets be F.W.B.

Girl you've always been my best friend
Cause you know me, and I know you
This is a natural progression
And girl this don't have to mean nothing
Unless you want it, and I want it
So please don't keep me guessin' no

Lets be lovers, friends, and confidants
Coz you're all the woman I could want
Don't nobody need to know
We're Friends With Benefits

Oh, whatever you need, baby I can be
And I got no strings to complicate things
Darling can't you see
Both of us our grown, Got needs of our own
Baby, lets be F.W.B.

Are you cool with it?
(I'm cool with it)
Are you cool with it?
(I'm cool with it)
U cool with it?
(I'm cool with it)
U cool with it?
(Yeah)
