Looking back inside my hell
At all the things i knew so well
And in my mind i feel the tears
The times i ad through all the years

Somebody, save me from
From myself, i need help

Innocence that grew to pain
All those days that turned to rain
I'm looking back inside my hell

Somebody, save me from
From myself, i need help

Inside myself resides the ghost
Of dreams i save that matter most
Inside my mind, a house of clouds

Somebody, save me from
From myself, i need help

Inside empty hush
My fear and love lie crushed
I feel those hurting ways
From my yesterdays

Looking back inside my hell
All the things i knew so well
Inside myself resides the ghost

Somebody, save me from
From myself, i need help
