The lawyer's talkin' 'bout me, I can't hear
Thinkin' back when did we go wrong?
Can't make the past just disappear
We've got this baby, let's be strong

And I know we'll move on with our lives
But I know that we'll be just fine

'Cause she's got your eyes
And that crooked smile of mine
So there'll always be you and I
And though things have changed
One thing remains the same
We'll still be a family
Even if there's no you and me

And baby's askin' everyday
Daddy, when you gonna come home?
And it breaks my heart to say
Mom and dad is movin' on

But she'll know we're both in her life
And our family will be just fine

'Cause she's got your eyes
And that crooked smile of mine
So there'll always be you and I
And though things have changed
One thing remains the same
We'll still be a family
Even if there's no you and me

Till death do us part, that was the vow
Oh, but look at us now
Whatever may come
Just look what we've done

She's got your eyes
That crooked smile of mine
So there'll always be you and I
And though things have changed
One thing remains the same

We'll still be a family
Even if there's no you and me

We'll still be, be a family
