Don't feel like myself this evenin'

Must be this old city air

No I ain't been very too well

Must be this old city air

I been a spinnin' my wheels

Don't think I'm goin' nowhere

Well I know my baby loves me

She tells me all the time

Yeah I know my baby loves me

'Cause she tells me all the time

If that gal ever leave me

I'm gonna lose my mind

(Chorus)

I'm goin' west through Johnson City

I'm leavin' town today

I don't know where I'm headed

How long I'm gonna stay

I'm gonna cruise with my baby

I'm gonna get on I-10 and drive

I'm goin' west through Johnson City

Me and that baby of mine

[Interlude]

(ah, Miller time now)

(ah, lemme hear you sing on Buddy)

Well some folks they entertain that

That's the only savin' grace they know

Yeah the liquor and wild women

That's the only savin' grace they know

All I need with me's my honey

And a thousand miles of open desert road

I'm gonna get us away out yonder

Underneath that starry sky

I'm gonna get us away out yonder honey

Underneath that starry sky

I gotta life for livin' brother

Gonna see it pass me by

(Repeat Chorus)
