Heaven knows, the devil's told
Everything on you is getting out of control
I see your fist raised up and clinched
I know you better than this

Don't hold your breath
Just get as far away as you can possibly get
I know you better than you
I'm takin' my time cause I got nothing to do

Wait a minute something's wrong
I know it won't take long
Let's burn a hole into the sky
And take a look into God's eyes

I know it don't seem right
But it won't take all night
I'm not tryin' to save the planet
I just don't like this noose I'm hangin' from

Red faced, short breathed
Yeah I'm takin' it all until there's nothing left
For you to prove
Yeah I'm takin' my time cause I got nothing to do

Wait a minute something's wrong
I know it won't take long
Let's burn a hole into the sky
And take a look into God's eyes

I know it don't seem right
But it won't take all night
I'm not tryin' to save the planet
I just don't like this noose I'm hangin' from

Why don't you make up your mind
Why don't you make up your mind
Why don't you make up your mind

Why don't you make up your mind
Why don't you make up your mind

Why don't you make up your mind

Wait a minute something's wrong
I know it won't take long
Let's burn a hole into the sky
And take a look into God's eyes

I know it don't seem right
But it won't take all night
I'm not tryin' to save the planet
I just don't like this noose I'm hangin' from
