

Plain End

"Package Deal"

You know this one right here is a package deal, but I guess you already know what you get is what you gave walk the line, face your fears but I guess you already knew

I forgot to tell you one thing this life should bring more things, more than this tonight we pray to pictures tomorrow burning bridges away from where?

We forget there's someone out there and maybe that one will care, just enough to walk through life in fiction is easier than friction, why even try?

knock me out - fuck me up my feelings won't drop dead

You know this one right here
