Wake up my love, I've got to go
But you're blocking up the door 'coz you're too fat you know
Sleep tight my love, that's all you do,
Maybe if I was as fat then I'd sleep all day too...

She drinks more beer than I do, and then she beats me
up
But she just does it out of love cuz she's my buttercup There's more hair in her armpit, than there is on my head
But I still love my girl REGINA without her I'd be dead

REGINA REGINA(x4)

Wake up my love, I've got to go
But you're blocking up the door 'cuz you're too fat, you know
Sleep tight my love, that's all you do,
Maybe if I was as fat then I'd sleep all day too
She drinks more beer than I do, and then she beats me
up
But she just does it out of love 'cuz she's my buttercup
She's never ever faithful and she always puts me down
But I still love my girl REGINA the sweetest girl in town
