I hear Brenda's got a baby but Brenda's barely got a brain
A damn shame
Tha girl can hardly spell her name
That's not our problem, that's up to Brenda's family Well let me show ya how it affects our whole community
Now Brenda really never knew her moms and her dad was a junky puttin death into his arms It's sad, cause I bet Brenda doesn't even know Just cause you're in the ghetto doesn't mean ya can't grow
But oh, that's a thought, my own revelation
Do whatever it takes to resist the temptation
Brenda got herself a boyfriend
Her boyfriend was her cousin, now let's watch the joy end
She tried to hide her pregnancy, from her family Who didn't really care to see, or give a damn if she Went out and had a church of kids
As long as when tha check came they got first dibs
Now Brenda's belly's gettin bigger
But no one seems ta notice any change in her figure She's 12 years old and she's having a baby
In love with tha molester, who's sexed and a crazy
And yet she thinks that he'll be with her forever And dreams of a world with tha two of them are together, whatever
He left her and she had tha baby solo
She had it on the bathroom floor and didn't know so She didn't know what ta throw away and what to keep She wrapped the baby up and threw him in the trash heap
I guess she thought she'd get away, wouldn't hear the cries
She didn't realize how much tha the little baby had her eyes
Now tha baby's in the trash heap balling
Momma can't help her, but it hurts to hear her calling Brenda wants ta run away, momma say, you makin' me lose pay

And social work is here everyday
Now Brenda's gotta make her own way
Can't go to her family, they won't let her stay
No money, no babysitter, she couldn't keep a job
She tried ta sell crack, but end up getting robbed
So now what's next, it ain't nothin left ta sell
So she sees sex as a way of leavin hell
It's payin tha rent, so she really can't complain Prostitute found slain, and Brenda's her name, she's got a baby

Baaaaaaaaby

(don't you know she's got)
(don't you know she's got)
(don't you know she's got)
(don't you know she's got a baby)
(don't you know she's got)
(don't you know she's got)
(don't you know she's got a baby)
