Every tree is green again in the Wood out my back door
Every spring that scene, again
Faithful coming as before
And every living thing is sure

With time to come of age
Just like girls and boys
Outgrow their toys and reach to turn the page

To the class of '95
Congratulations are in line
God has surely been most faithful
He's been so much more than kind

So get ready to test your wings
And fly away but when you do
Remember you are loved
And somebody here is always praying for you

So this is what I bargained for
Hushed hello and a rushed goodbye
Old folks said I'd be amazed at how Quickly the time would fly

Even so, I'm thankful that my God saw fit to lend
This child into my unworthy hands
Who's less a child now and more a friend

God has surely been most faithful
He's been so much more than kind

So get ready to test your wings
And fly away but when you do
Remember you are loved
And somebody here is always praying for you

I could pray, the road would rise to meet your
And that the wind would blow softly on you soul
But sometimes life can sure mistreat you

And troubled times will take their toll

And so the best that I can wish you
No, even better, some good, I will pray
That the Lord in mercy keeps you
And that you hold on to your childlike faith

God has surely been most faithful
He's been so much more than kind

So get ready to test your wings
And fly away but when you do
Remember you are loved
And somebody here is always praying for you
