I swear from the first time I saw you I knew,
Yeah I swear,
Had a feeling that you could take my dreams
And make them all come true.

All my friends didn't seem to approve
But I had a plan,
It's when a blessing occurs,
But ever since I put you first.

One day we will be as one,
Nothing makes me feel so alive
You will find that
We'll be one,
That's just a deal,
Cuz this is for real

There are times,
When you don't want to be on my side,
At all
And I feel that you're out of my reach
And all I do (I do)
Is wait around for you (for you)

But I never lose sight over price,
And I learned,
That it pays to be patient,
And all our pain,
Will never be in vain.

One day we will be as one,
Nothing makes me feel so alive
You will find that,
We'll be one
That's just a deal,

You got me down on my knees now,
I want to whole world to see,
You got me falling to pieces (if you)
If you'd be a part of me.

(Heyyy yeahhh)
