Ooh, shit do happens, you know
It happened to me
So why this couldn't happen to you?
Ooh, check this

Things ain't going so right
Just another day in my life
I was blinded by the sight
When she walked out of my life

Things ain't going so right
Just another day in my life
Didn't wanna let her go
Wanted her to be my wife

I was so in love with you
Saw things from your point of view
Tried really hard to make things right
Just to hold you for one more night

Took life one day at a time
Things were going, oh, so fine
Didn't see my troubles coming on
Even when you're long gone

Could've told me there was another man, oh
I just can't understand, oh

Things ain't going so right
Just another day in my life
I was blinded by the sight
When she walked out of my life

Things ain't going so right
Just another day in my life
Didn't wanna let her go
Wanted her to be my wife

Can't believe it's the end
We were more than just friends
I was hired and I
Didn't watch my lover's supply

I was too blind to see
There was more than just me
Even when your touch was cold
Our love still would unfold

Could've told me there was another man, oh
I still can't understand, oh

Things ain't going so right
Just another day in my life
I was blinded by the sight
When she walked out of my life

Things ain't going so right
Just another day in my life
Didn't wanna let her go
Wanted her to be my wife

I was so in love with you
Saw things from your point of view
Tried really hard to make things right
Just to hold you for one more night

Took life one day at a time
Things were going, oh, so fine
Didn't see my troubles coming on
Even when you're long gone

Could've told me there was another man, oh
I still can't understand, whoa

Things ain't going so right
Just another day in my life
I was blinded by the sight
When she walked out of my life

Things ain't going so right
Just another day in my life
Didn't wanna let her go
Wanted her to be my wife

Things ain't going so right
Just another day in my life
I was blinded by the sight
When she walked out of my life
Things ain't going so right
