ARASHI'S LIFE It's not over

Standing here in the pierced future

ARASHI'S FIGHT We won't stop

Until we seize the light with these hands

An unexpected splendid weather forecast, reason being we are abnormal weather (what?)

Moving from east to west in a great migration, scattering about this great atmosphere

Up, up, rising, ascending into orbit, like a flight through the sky

The clouds are gathering, rain pelts the hardening ground

Rumors are all heresy, completely unfounded; We are able beat that kind of problem, aren't we?

Even the brutish path, if we take it... ah We c-c-can't stop (hi-ha)

In hot pursuit, the turtle overtakes the rabbit, But in this great flood you can't do anything but endure

Here, from the heart of Tokyo, continue on to the unparalleled in steps

Flap your wings towards the world

Wink from the skies to the ground

Everything remains the same

Frankly, nothing has been embellished

08ARASICK a reprise; one greeting before setting sail

Undeveloped land is cultivated once again, LIGHT UP!
Light the torch, audience!

* Repeat

These five wheels meet again, a wandering samurai
proceeds to holy ground

This story is based on actual history; hide everything,
strong wind

It's a storm (blah), thunder rolls, a bolt of lightning attacks

Here, from the centre of Tokyo, a light begins to shine from the middle of the retreating chaos

Another sun rises

It faces everything from the sky to this earth

Incidentally, a little pain will attack it

It falls down seven times in order to rise

It's still lacking in greed, the great big sea is still choppy

08ARASICK a reprise; LIGHT UP! Light the torch, audience!

Even though the sky is covered with jet black clouds, the sun commands a slight view from a rift in the clouds

Sometimes lightning flickers, entirely... it seems like the entire sky is drunk on rejoicing

It's like we're completely shrouded

In the swirl of madness

In a sky I've never seen

Words are starting to be lost

The sound of heaven splitting

Is the only thing left in my ears

The sound of heaven splitting

"Face sharpened nails with hidden fangs"

These five wheels meet again, a wandering samurai

This story is based on actual history; hide everything,
strong wind

great flood you can't do anything but endure

Continue on to the unparalleled in steps here, TOKYO

* Repeat

The light won't disappear, Delight's song is

Ringin incessantly towards tomorrow

The greatest stage starts here

ARASHI'S LIFE Is not over

Face sharpened nails with hidden fangs; Forecasters, bear it with your head hung in shame
