Stand back
Do I hear trouble coming?
You hear that?
You must have startled something
From way back
Way back
You hear that?
Do I hear angels calling?
You feel that?
You must have thought of something
From way back
From way back

Chorus:
And she laid her head upon my pillow
And I remember what I used to know
And she laid her head upon my pillow
And I remember what I used to know

Lean back
She said in the softest whisper
Feel that?
We must be on to something
Lean back
Way back

Chorus:
And she laid her head upon my pillow
And I remember what I used to know
And she laid her head upon my pillow
And I remember what I used to know

And she laid her head upon my pillow
And I remember what I used to know
And everything is different now and
She says that she'll never let me go
And suddenly a Tuesday morning
Isn't just like every other day
And suddenly the boy inside me
Just forgot to wish the day away

See that
She said with eyes upon me
I came back
You gotta learn to trust me
Lean back
Way back

Chorus:

And she laid her head upon my pillow
And I remember what I used to know
And she laid her head upon my pillow
And I remember what I used to know
