"Thank You"

I saw you fall down.
You tripped over yourself.
So I reached out my hand.
You said you didn't need help.
You said "It's a cool, cool feeling,
but thank you sir and I'm okay."
You said "It's a cool, cool feeling,
and thank you sir but I'll be on my way."

She came over my house.
She looked a little distressed.
Well I said, "Sit down and relax,
and let me do the rest."
She said "It's a cool, cool feeling,
and thank you sir but I'm okay."
She said "It's a cool, cool feeling,
and thank you sir but I'll be on my way."

Sometimes I think to much,
and sometimes I lose control.
Woah, sometimes you gotta keep in touch,
and sometimes you just have to let go.
Ohh...Yeah..

I saw you wake up.
You were right by my side.
I said' "Please don't ever leave me,
and don't make me decide."
She said "It's a cool, cool feeling,
and thank you sir but I'm okay."
She said "It's a cool, cool feeling,
and thank you sir but I'll be on my way."

She said "It's a cool, cool feeling,
and thank you sir but I'll be on my way."
