oooooooooh ooooooooooh ooooooooooh oooh oooh oooooooooh ooooooooooh ooooooooooh oooh oooh oooh oooooh honey

why you got to be so mean don't you don't you remember me oooooh baby baby you and me you and me you and me we build sandcastles in the serengeti don't you remember me

you splash my face with nile water daughter of diaspora

you named me claimed me do you remember me do you remember me do you remember me oooooooooohhhhhh do you remember me me

do you remember me

remember playing pinball right on 23rd street i was there i remember when you got your first pair of sneaks converse i think do you i remember you swore you were so big and bad you walked around like your mmmm didn't stink but i was there always been there i remember that it did ooooh it did i remember you loved many it was so beautiful magical wonderful

i remember loving you so good so good so good

do you remember me

do you remember me i mean for real do you remember me in background until end don't you remember those days way back when we spoke k swahili

it was you and me see remember playing hide and go freak

i was the one you were born to seek and i'm still here getting down 6x

for you
