Slowly surely

I walk away from

That old desperate and dazed love

Caught up in the maze of love

The crazy craze of love

Thought it was good

Thought it was real

Thought it was

But it wasn't love

i just don't know

where i should go

so

slowly surely

i walk away from

self serving

undeserving

constantly hurting me love

deserting me love

you said i said we said

but

slowly surely

i walk away from

confusing love

misusing love

abusing love

this can't be

slowly surely

i walk away from

no

know know know

slowly surely

i walk away from

i just don't know where to go
so
i walk away from love
oh
slowly surely one step at a time but surely i will pass the old love aside and love me
slowly
surely i walk away from slowly surely i walk away from desperating love caught up in the maze love crazy crazy craze of love slowly surely i walk away from repeat 5 times sloooooowly suuuuuuurely slowly surely
