Falling to my knees before you
So ashamed to see my weakness fill your eyes
Needlessly I let myself stray before you
Now I face the consequence of my betrayal

My paradigm
My sweet love I breathe
It's you I rely on
Shelter me from cold
I'm dying paradigm

Do we sacrifice?
Let our story die?
Blissful lullabies return again
Let me stay awhile
Let love survive
Delicately crawling to your grace

My paradigm

Sweet love I breathe
It's you I rely on
Shelter me from cold
I'm dying paradigm

Perfect sky
Shadowed by my lies
Good enough but always wanting more
I've replaced all your love with pain
So afraid to face the world

Paradigm
My sweet love I breathe...

My paradigm
My sweet love I breathe
It's you I rely on
Shelter me from cold
I'm dying paradigm
Dying paradigm...
