i've got my gun to the face in a magazine i've got the world but you've got me on a string i never knew a touch could make me feel alive and then i kissed your lips and thought that i had died well, i know!

well, well, i know.
i know it can't be wrong to touch heaven
oh, i won't let you go
i wanted you to know you're my halo i never knew a tongue could drown you in a cheek i never knew to drown could make me so complete well, you're my drug that had been sent from above well, i figured it out what heaven had sent and so i named it 'love'

well, well, i know.

everything is magical i'm so fanatical you're so gorgeous oh, you're so gorgeous cosmic ecstasy is what you've done to me well, i can't give it up won't give in it hurts but i like what you did

i wanted..
