"Riffmaster B"

Now everything is operational so I begin with the residual
What seems like the hundred thousandth time
It seems that somewhere down the line something important's gone awry and I can't right this wrong

It doesn't matter what we tell ourselves
We know that formulas and measurements don't always measure up the truth It's that these empirical solutions aren't nearly quite as foolproof as we'd like to think

So I'll say:
Settle down

Settle down
We can't let panic grip us
If we let panic grip us, everything is lost and I'll say:
Settle down

Settle down
We can't get caught up in this
If we get caught up in this, everything is lost, oh yeah

Now everything is operational so I begin with the
residual
What seems like the hundred thousandth time
But it seems that somewhere down the line something important's gone awry and I can't right this wrong

So I'll say:
Settle down

Settle down
We can't let panic grip us
If we let panic grip us, everything is lost and I'll say:
Settle down

Settle down
We can't get caught up in this

If we get caught up in this, everything is lost, oh yeah

Settle down

Settle down

We can't let panic grip us

If we let panic grip us, everything is lost and I'll say:

Settle down

Settle down

We can't get caught up in this

If we get caught up in this, everything is lost, oh yeah
