It's time for bed, go to sleep little ones
Rest your head, daddy loves you he loves you
The worlds asleep, but theirs no sleep for me
I feel the urge, to fill my veins with these drugs

I hate myself
For who I am
For what I've done
I just need some deliverance

I'm so afraid, cause this addiction wont break
It takes a taste, and leaves me nothing with nothing
I feel alone, I feel theirs nobody out their I'm all alone, I could just end this right here

Because these drugs, they took my family from me
They took everything that I loved, they took it
But then one day, I met You
And you took it all away

(And it's gone now)
I no longer hate myself, for who I am today
And for what I did yesterday, Jesus your my deliverance
Now I no longer hate my self, for who I am
For what I have done, Jesus your my deliverance
(Forgive me for trespassing you)
You are my, eternal love
Your my deliverance
