You are an island, I'm not the ocean

If you are an island then I am the midlands

You are an island, you'll always be that way 'cause you choose to

Ohh Don't have to be that way

I can't quite reach you, I can't quite see you

I don't know who you are, or your intentions

I know that one day they'll be a rainstorm and then a piece of me will make it's way down there

Maybe one day it they'll be a rainstorm
And a piece of me will flow down to you,

Ohh Don't have to be that way

You hide that is true about you're sly and you sneak so that you don't look like a fool (2X)

You are an island, I'm not the ocean

You are an island, you'll always be that way 'cause you
choose to

Ohh Don't have to be that way
