(Lyrics: Giding, Kaisajuntti & Ljungquist music: Giding, Ljungquist)

I feel the smell of fresh meat
I hear the noise, I feel the beat

I hope you pray for tonight
I hope you pray for tonight

She's at home having dinner
She doesn't know I'm the bad, bad sinner

I hope you pray for tonight
I hope you pray for tonight

Say hallo to my evil soul
Say goodbye to your pride
So come on lets watch Superbowl
You and me on the same side

I feel the smell of fresh juice
Play the guitar and drink some booze

I hope you pray for tonight
I hope you pray for tonight

She's taking the bus downtown
While I'm trying to get it down

I hope you pray for tonight
I hope you pray for tonight

Say hallo to my evil soul
Say goodbye to your pride
So come on lets watch Superbowl
You and me on the same side
