All alone heavy courderoy
Dim the lights to distort lie
No surprise its a one-way street
Like a dog it comes back to me

But you know that when I'm gone
I'll be lost inside of you
I should have known that I
I'd be your alibi
Your personal holocaust

Been a long time apathy
Holy hostage inside of me
See the face of a fearless child
Turn away and abandon me

But I know that when you're gone
you'll be lost inside of me
I should have known that I
I'd be your alibi
Your personal holocaust

But I know that when you're gone
I'll be lost inside of you
You'll be lost inside of me
I should have known that I
I'd be your alibi
Your personal holocaust
I'd be your alibi
Your personal holocaust
So divine
