"Let Me Live A Little"

Don't you think I've cried enough swallowed all my pride enough Don't you think I've tried enough
let me live a little Haven't I been fool enough who that cared for you enough Haven't I been true enough
let me live a little
In a world away from you there's no life for me Like this from day to day all those mem'ries that you left me Open up your arms again let's be sweethearts not just friends Won't you let forgiveness in let me live a little
In a world away from you...
Let me live a little
