Title: Ju Ju Man

I was just sixteen years old
Maggie's hair was as black as coal
Lord I felt this heart of mine go slippin' away
Now her eyes were bright as the stars up above
Every word Maggie spoke was love
Lord I felt this heart of mine go slippin' away

Fallin' in love again
Fallin' in love again
We don't care if we don't ever do
Fall back out again

Time flew on and my love got stronger
Me and Maggie couldn't wait any longer
We had to go to town right away to see the Ju Ju Man
I said "Please please help me Mr Ju ju Man
"Read those cards that you got in your hand
"I gotta make a plan for me and my Maggie love"

Fallin' in love again
Fallin' in love again
We don't care if we don't ever do
Fall back out again

Fallin' in love again
Fallin' in love again
We don't care if we don't ever do
Fall back out again

Now Maggie's poppa, he'd like to hang me
Maggie's momma well I know she'd like to chain me
Cause she don't understand
A single word of what love is

I said "Please please help me Mr. Ju Ju Man
"Will I be holding my sweet Maggie's hand
"When the robin sings again
"This time in the fall next year"

"I sho' hope you do man!"

Fallin' in love again
Fallin' in love again
We don't care if we don't ever do
Fall back out again

Fallin' in love again
Fallin' in love again
We don't care if we don't ever do
Fall back out again

Fallin' fallin' fallin' in love
Fallin' in love again

Fallin' fallin' fallin' in love
Fallin' in love again

Fallin fallin' fallin' in love
Fallin' in love again

Fallin' fallin' fallin' in love
Fallin' in love again
