My heart took a beating from the lyin' and cheatin'
She really knows how to hurt
So I guess I'm lucky I'm outta the clutches
I can't forget good she looks
One taste of the bait is worth
The pain of the hook

Well now she's laughin' in someone else's face
Breakin' into someone else's heart
If I had good sense I'd say good riddens
I can't forget those temptin' looks
One taste of the bait is worth
The pain of the hook

One taste of the bait is worth the hook
She's got more spice than a Cajun cook
Friends rub it in "man you got took"
But who wouldn't go for her good looks
It's easy to fall you don't need a push
One taste of the bait is worth
The pain of the hook

If she don't drive you crazy I guarantee you'll be Close enough to walk
'Cause nothings as sweet as her soft secrets
You won't forget how good she looks
It's easy to fall you don't need a push
One taste of the bait is worth the hook
It's easy to fall you don't need a push
One taste of the bait is worth
The pain of the hook

The pain of the hook
The pain of the hook (one taste of the bait is worth)
The pain of the hook (one taste of the bait is worth)
I said the pain of the hook (one taste of the bait is worth)
The pain of the hook (one taste of the bait is worth)
