Title: Original Mixed-Up Kid

-----
The original mixed-up kid
Sleeps with the ladies all night
Home in the morning light
To nothin'

Climbs in to an empty bed
Pillows around his head
To hide the tears he sheds
For no one

And Byron said happiness is born it's twin
In those who share, for they will always win
But what about the man who tries so hard
But his heart is locked within

The original mixed-up kid
Must have been at the end of the line
When they gave out the forms to sign
For someone

And he can't make up his mind where he wants to go Ain't there a heaven ain't there a hell well he just don't know
For in the crowded street he can see the sleet
When the other man only sees snow

And he can't make up his mind where he wants to go
Ain't there a heaven ain't there a hell well he just don't know
For in the crowded street he can see the sleet
When the other man only sees snow

The original mixed-up kid will be on your conscience bound
For you turned him upside down for nothin'

The original mixed-up kid
Sleeps with the ladies all night

Home in the morning light
To nothin'

Whoa-a-whoa-oh
Whoa-a-whoa-oh
Whoa-a-whoa-oh
Whoa-a-whoa-oh

Oh, he's a mix-up kid

He's a mixed-up kid

A mixed-up kid

Whoa, oh, oh, oh, oh
