Title: Sudden stop

Walkin' out, didn't talk it out
Now she's gone so you can mark it out
I'm all alone, I must do without
All the love that I can't live without

Led her on, did her wrong
I can't blame the girl for bein' gone
I was cheatin' on her all along
I can't really see her hanging on

When a man's bein' loved
He just takes it all for granted
He can't feel himself fallin'
He thinks he's on top
But it's not the fall
That hurts him at all
It's the sudden stop

Suddenly, stopped loving me
Caught me runnin' 'round and set me free
Now my misery is my company
And I'm missing her touch constantly

When a man's bein' loved
He just takes it all for granted
He can't feel himself fallin'
He thinks he's on top
But it's not the fall
That hurts him at all
It's that sudden stop

Walkin' out didn't talk it out
Now she's gone so you can mark it out
I'm alone and I must do without
All the love that I can't live without
